David:

We got four letters today from Frankfurt, Garbus re our trademarks. I've attached one. The others are the words "Whole Earth Review," the words "Whole Earth Catalog," and the logo of the most recent Catalog.

I don't know what the meaning of "& Design" is in the "re" on the letter [there is no parallel wording for the WEC logo registration; it just says "Whole Earth Catalog"]. Maybe that doesn't matter, since the Certificate of Registration is simply as it is.

Dear Mr. Stone:

We are pleased to inform you that a Certificate of Registration has been issued for the above trademark. We have enclosed a photocopy of the Registration Certificate and will keep the original in our files. The registration is effective September 26, 1995 and will be in full force and effect for ten (10) years until September 26, 2005.

Under trademark law, an affidavit of continued use must be filed during the sixth year of registration. This means that an affidavit must be filed between September 26, 2000 and September 26, 2001. This Affidavit attests to your use of the trademark in interstate commerce for five consecutive years.

If the Affidavit is not filed with the trademark office by September 26, 2001, then your rights to the registration will automatically lapse. It is important that you record these dates for your files.

In order to inform others of your rights to the marks, the ® notice should be included whenever the marks are used.

If you have any questions, please contact me or Ned Rosenthal at (212) 980-0120.

Sincerely yours,

Hilary S. Geier
